You know I'm not rich, there's not much I own
But all I am belongs to you
There's nothing more, except to adore
And giving myself to you

I'm not a king with lots of land
I'm just a boy in love with you
All though it's not much, it's more than a touch
I give you a love, that's true

Chorus: You gave a purpose in my life
 Turned my darkness into light
 Gave a pleasure to this heart of mine
 You are the reason now to sing
 You healed my broken wings
 And now I can fly in love

All of the girls, I've known before
They don't matter anymore
All I see is you for me
I need you more and more

Chorus: You gave a purpose in my life
 Turned my darkness into light
 Gave a pleasure to this heart of mine
 You are the reason now to sing
 You healed my broken wings
 And now I can fly in love

Chorus: You gave a purpose in my life
 Turned my darkness into light
 Gave a pleasure to this heart of mine
 You are the reason now to sing
 You healed my broken wings
 And now I can fly in love
