

THE LADY IN AN IRISH PUB

Tekst : Michiel van Kalsbeek
Muziek : Michiel van Kalsbeek
© M. Van Kalsbeek (2024)

She was sittin' at the table, next to me
Havin' herself a drink
When the band started playing her favorite song
She stood up and started to sing

In the midst of the dance floor, she took all her time
It seemed that she doesn't care
How all the men watched how she moved and danced
And stroked with her hands through her hair

Chorus: She was gorgeous and pretty
 I'll never forget how she made me feel fine
 Since that night in an Irish city
 I'll never forget the way that she sang
 The way that she danced and smiled

She had the charisma, she had the looks
What made all the men turn their heads
But when I said how are you doing tonight
It seemed like I was her big threat

Chorus: But she was gorgeous and pretty
 I'll never forget how she made me feel fine
 Since that night in an Irish city
 I'll never forget the way that she sang
 The way that she danced and smiled

Chorus: Ooh, she was gorgeous and pretty
 I'll never forget how she made me feel fine
 Since that night in an Irish city
 I'll never forget the way that she sang
 The way that she danced and smiled

Noo noo noo noo noo noo noo noo
Noo noo noo noo noo noo noo

Chorus: She was gorgeous and pretty
 I'll never forget how she made me feel fine
 Since that night in an Irish city
 I'll never forget the way that she sang
 The way that she danced and smiled
 I'll never forget the way that she sang
 The way that she danced and smiled